

Deborah and her husband Karl visited Midland several years and ago and decided that the “Tall City” offered the quality of life they had been looking for. Karl and Deborah settled in Midland and are raising their two daughters, Lauren and Samantha, in this wonderful community.

A graduate of Lubbock Christian University, Deborah had a successful career in retail management prior to entering real estate. Deborah understands the need for superior customer service when dealing with each transaction. Her past work experiences has taught her that customer service is important during and after a sale.

As a Realtor with Prudential Cooper Realty, she has access to the resources, technology and market knowledge to assist you with all your real estate needs. The Prudential Real Estate Affiliates, Inc. offers more than 1500 offices and 48,000 sales professionals throughout the United States and Canada. With her education and work experience, she feels uniquely qualified to be your Realtor.